Martin Griffiths

Abstract

We consider here an aspect of Zeckendorf representations of integers. In particular, we obtain the structure of the set of positive integers such that each element of this set contains F_k in its Zeckendorf representation.